

As a retired flight attendant of 34yrs. I truly feel allowing cell phone use on aircraft would be a serious infringement of safety. Comprising safe evacuation with people in negative panic communicating with loved ones & also the possibility of communicating with terrorists for a possible takeover & suicide deaths. We need to keep the integrity of the crew maintaining leadership & authority of all safety issues.